NEWSLETTER. The L&EC publishes a newsletter twice a year to coincide with the annual AFL-CIO Lawyers' Coordinating Committee meeting (in the spring) and the annual NLG Convention (usually in the fall). We would love to add some issues too. Please consider contributing an article by contacting Henry Willis.

WEBSITE. EXPLORE our site at www.nlg-laboremploy-comm.org. We have information ABOUT US including our newsletters and mentor program; PROJECTS in which we are involved including our Section 7 project, work with ROC, worker centers, resources for labor and employment attorneys regarding immigrant workers' rights, international labor issues, etc. We also have webpages about LOCAL WORK in various areas. We post information about EVENTS including activities at the LCC and the Guild Convention. We welcome suggestions and contributions for the website.

EMPLOYEE & UNION MEMBER GUIDE TO LABOR LAW: A MANUAL FOR ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING THE LABOR MOVEMENT. You can purchase the 3-volume treatise from the publisher at <http://legalsolutions.thomsonreuters.com/law-products/Treatises/Employee-and-Union-Member-Guide-to-Labor-Law/p/100027989> or (888) 728-7677. NLG + L&EC members receive a 25% discount from the list price of the print or eBook version and our Committee receives a percentage of the royalties.

INTERNATIONAL WORK + TRAVEL to CUBA. You can join the International Commission for Labor Rights online at www.laborcommission.org and the International Association of Democratic Lawyers at <http://www.iadllaw.org/en/node/209>. We co-sponsor, with the Cuban Workers' Federation, meetings and international research exchanges of labor and employment lawyers, trade unionists, neutrals and scholars. Contact Dean Hubbard or Joan Hill for information about our next program Feb 27 - Mar 6, 2016. And see our website for more information about international labor work. For specific information on our Cuba research program, see http://www.nlg-laboremploy-comm.org/Intl\_Cuba\_Research.php – brochure posted there.

LOCAL WORK. If you want to help start a local committee in your area or contact other L&EC members, let us know and we'll try to facilitate. Our local activities are growing and we welcome your participation.

MEETINGS & DATES to SAVE. The Committee as a whole meets twice a year - at the fall NLG Convention and at the spring AFL-CIO Lawyers Coordinating Committee (LCC) conference. We also sponsor a breakfast at the LCC and various programs at the annual NLG Convention. The next LCC begins Tuesday May 10, 2016 in Chicago with the Building Trades, followed by the LCC starting Tuesday evening and ending Thursday. The next NLG Convention is in New York City, August 3 - 7, 2016.
