

Program and travel arrangements for U.S. participants will be made by Marazul Charters, Inc., a licensed Cuba travel service provider. Pre-registration and deposit of $200.00 is required by January 1, 2019.

2019 CUBA DELEGATION INFORMATION

Name: _____

Address: _____

Home and Work telephones: _____

E-mail address: _____

Labor and employment relations professional affiliation _____

By pre-registering, I state my understanding that the purpose of this trip is to conduct professional research of an academic, non-commercial nature and to participate in an international conference organized by the AAJ and ALAL at which there will be an exchange of information and views regarding labor relations and workers' rights in Cuba, the United States and other countries. I agree to participate in the preparation of a report of the results of this research which is intended for public dissemination. I agree to participate in this research and international conference with an open mind and in a spirit of solidarity.

Signature _____

For price information, and to submit form and deposit, contact:
Mayra Alonso
Marazul Charters, Inc.
1 Marine Plaza, Suite 302
North Bergen, NJ 07047
1-800-223-5334 (Phone)
1-201-319-1054 x 16
1-201-319-8970 (Fax)
malonso@marazul.com

The National Lawyers Guild
Labor and Employment Committee

The National Lawyers Guild is composed of activist lawyers, law professors, law students, legal workers and jailhouse lawyers, all of whom are dedicated to the end that human rights are more sacred than property interests. The Guild was founded in the 1930s as a progressive, multi-racial alternative to the American Bar Association, which then excluded people of color from membership.

For membership information, go to www.nlg-laboremploy-comm.org

The National Lawyers Guild Labor and Employment Committee Invite Labor and Employment Professionals to CUBA to participate in the 20th Annual Bilateral Professional Research Project Endorsed by

- The Labor Law Society of the National Union of Cuban Jurists (UNJC)
- The Center for Cuban Workers (CTC)
- NLG Labor & Employment Committee

And

12th INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON LABOR RIGHTS

Endorsed by:

- The Latin American Association of Labor Lawyers (ALAL)
- The Brazilian Association of Labor Lawyers (ABAL)
- The Association of Labor Lawyers of Argentina (AALA)

Approximate Dates
March 15 to March 24, 2019

This conference will provide critically important opportunities to build links in the global chain to fight back against the ongoing assault on workers' human rights.

Conference topics will include:

1. Labor Rights in the 21st Century, their nature and formulation.
2. The right to social inclusion.
3. Experiences in the articulation of actions in defense of workers' rights: The Latin American Social-Labor Charter.
4. Labor Law reforms and their impact on stability at work and the protection of workers' rights and against distinct forms of employment discrimination.
5. The working class, the labor movement, threats to union freedom of association and collective bargaining in the 21st Century.
6. The right to information and participation of workers in business management.
7. Workplace health and safety and the prevention of risks at work: Toxic substances in the world of work.
8. Autonomous (self-employed) workers and production and service cooperatives, their protection.
9. Migrant workers and the defense of their human rights.
10. Human trafficking in work settings.
11. Procedures to solve labor conflicts.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE AND PROGRAM OF PROFESSIONAL RESEARCH FOR LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT PROFESSIONALS

Package will include:

Round trip airfare to
Havana from Miami
7 nights in centrally-located
Tourist-class hotels in
Havana and Province
In-country Transportation,
Breakfast, some Dinners
Translation and guide services
Conference Registration

Join us as we continue our critically important work of building bridges of mutual education, research and understanding.
CLE credit may be available in your State for the International Conference.

Itinerary*

Days One—Two

- Depart U.S., arrive in Havana
Delegation Briefing and Orientation
Welcome Event; depart for Province

Days Three-Four

Bilateral Exchange and Research in Province

Days Four—Six

International Conference in Havana

Day Seven

Tour of Havana and Local Historical Sites

Day Eight

Return to the US

