

Join us!

NLG Labor & Employment Committee

Events at the AFL-CIO LCC

L&EC Breakfast

Tuesday, April 28th, 6:50AM - 8:05AM

Location: Sheraton Philadelphia Downtown Hotel, 201 N 17th St, Philadelphia, PA 19103
Salon 5/6

Topic: Fighting Back Against ALEC's Attacks on Workers

Speaker: Brendan Fischer, General Counsel for the Center for Media & Democracy

The Center for Media & Democracy conducts original investigations and reports on national issues, including ongoing efforts by the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC) to destroy collective bargaining rights. Brendan's work includes ongoing investigation, monitoring and exposure of ALEC's efforts to pass right-to-work-for-less legislation, repeal prevailing wage laws, preempt local minimum wage and paid sick day ordinances, and other efforts attacking organized labor and the rights of working people. Brendan is a former Peace Corps Volunteer and graduated with honors from the University of Wisconsin Law School.

Please RSVP by April 21st to fschreiberg@kazanlaw.com

The breakfast is free to L&EC dues paying members, and $30 for non dues paying members.

Pay for breakfast or pay dues here: http://www.nlg-laboremploy-comm.org/Membership\_Info.php

L&EC After Cocktail Reception

Sunday, April 26th, 8PM

Location: 315 South American Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106

Join fellow L&EC members for light refreshments and drinks after the LCC Cocktail Party

Hosted by Robert Curley and Barbara Watson

L&EC Lunch Meeting

Monday, April 27th, 12:30-1:45PM

Location: Sheraton Philadelphia Downtown Hotel, 201 N 17th St, Philadelphia, PA 19103

Room location will be posted at the L&EC literature table

Join the L&EC for a lunch time members meeting. Bring your own lunch. There are a few places where lunch can be purchased within a 5 minute walk from the hotel. Walk down 17th Street toward JFK Blvd.

