

Program and travel arrangements for U.S. participants will be made by Marazul Charters, Inc., a licensed Cuba travel service provider. Pre-registration and deposit of $200.00 is required by February 15, 2018.

2018 CUBA DELEGATION INFORMATION

Name: _____

Address: _____

Home and Work telephones: _____

E-mail address: _____

Labor and employment relations professional affiliation _____

By pre-registering, I state my understanding that the purpose of this trip is to conduct professional research of an academic, non-commercial nature and to participate in an international conference organized by the AAJ and ALAL at which there will be an exchange of information and views regarding labor relations and workers' rights in Cuba, the United States and other countries. I agree to participate in the preparation of a report of the results of this research which is intended for public dissemination. I agree to participate in this research and international conference with an open mind and in a spirit of solidarity.

Signature _____

For price information, and to submit form and deposit, contact:
Bob Guild, Marazul Charters, Inc.
1 Marine Plaza, Suite 302
North Bergen, NJ 07047
1-800-223-5334 (Phone)
1-201-319-1054 x 16
1-201-319-8970 (Fax)
bguild@marazul.com

The National Lawyers Guild Labor and Employment Committee

The National Lawyers Guild is composed of activist lawyers, law professors, law students, legal workers and jailhouse lawyers, all of whom are dedicated to the end that human rights are more sacred than property interests. The Guild was founded in the 1930s as a progressive, multi-racial alternative to the American Bar Association, which then excluded people of color from membership.

For membership information, go to

<http://www.nlg.org>

The Association of American Jurists (AAJ) and Association of Latin American Labor Lawyers (ALAL)

Invite Labor and Employment Professionals to the 19th Annual Bilateral Professional Research Project Followed by

11th INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON LABOR RIGHTS

In CUBA

Approximate Dates
April 7 to April 15, 2018

Endorsed by

- The National Lawyers Guild Labor and Employment Committee
 - The Labor Law Society of the National Union of Cuban Jurists (UNJC)
 - The Central de Trabajadores de Cuba (CTC)
 - The Brazilian Association of Labor Lawyers (ABAL)
 - The Association of Labor Lawyers of Argentina (AALA)
-

This conference will provide critically important opportunities to build links in the global chain to fight back against the ongoing assault on workers' human rights.

Conference topics will include:

1. 21st century Labor Law: its nature, its formulation.
2. Experiences in the articulation of actions in defense of workers' rights. The Latin American Social-Labor Charter.
3. Labor reforms: their impact on job stability and the protection of workers' rights and against various forms of discrimination in employment.
4. The working class, the labor movement and labor law in the twenty-first century.
5. The right to information and the participation of workers in enterprise management
6. Safety and health at work and occupational risk prevention. Harmful substances in the workplace.
7. Self-employed and cooperative workers (production and services).
8. Migrant workers and the defense of their human rights.
9. Conflict resolution procedures in labor.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE AND PROGRAM OF PROFESSIONAL RESEARCH FOR LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT PROFESSIONALS

Package will include:

Round trip airfare to Santiago/
Havana from Miami

8 nights in centrally-located
Tourist-class hotels in
Havana and Santiago

In-country Transportation

Breakfast, some Dinners

Translation and guide services

Conference Registration

Join us as we continue our critically important work of building bridges of mutual education, research and understanding. CLE credit may be available in your State for the International Conference.

Tentative Itinerary

Day One

Depart U.S., arrive in Santiago

Delegation Briefing and Orientation

Welcome Event

Days Two-Four

Bilateral Exchange and Research in Santiago, fly to Havana

Days Five-Seven

International Conference

Day Eight

Closing Event

Day Nine

Return to US

